

Summer 2008

This summer, we've created art camps influenced by diverse cultures from around the world. Choose from the hieroglyphics and stylized drawings of Egypt to the island colors and textures of the Caribbean Islands. Explore the classical art of Japan, the primitive pictographs of Australia or the rich iconic art of Medieval times.

Policies and Procedures

Open registration for children not currently attending Kid Art is Saturday, April 19. Please be aware that pre-registration for students currently attending the spring semester will begin April 14 at 8:00 a.m and end Thursday, April 17 at 6:00. (At this time they will be able to pre-register for 1 camp only). Pre-registration slots will be limited to 1/2 of the slots per camp session so all sessions will have space available for open registration.

Open registration begins Saturday, April 19 at 2:00 to 5:00. We will pass out sequential numbers at that time and begin registering immediately. Only 1 number will be given per family. No numbers will be given to children. You may only sign up your own children. However, if you are unable to attend, you may have another person (who is not registering anyone else) register your child.

In order to facilitate a faster registration time, please fill out your enrollment forms, (except for the camp session #), before you arrive. If you are not present when your number is called we will go on to the next number. No line lists will be honored and you must be in line to receive a number.

No registration will be accepted by mail or telephone until after registration day. If you are not able to attend registration, please call us beginning Monday April 21, and we'll be happy to help you. A list of available camps will be on our voice mail.

The total number of camps you may sign up for is 2 per child.

Two weeks prior notice of cancellation must be given for a refund. A $50 processing fee will be withheld from each session payment refund. No refunds will be given with less than 2 weeks notice.

Please do not sign up for a camp if your child is unable to attend every day. There will be no make-ups for days missed.

Kid Art reserves the right to dismiss a child from the program if his or her behavior and/or attitude are detrimental to the other students.

Due to our commitment to the quality of our programs, no exceptions will be made to the above policies and procedures. Please do not ask.
